La couverture de cette brochure
rend hommage au célèbre architecte
Georges Maillols (1913-1998).

Dès la fin des années 1950, Georges Maillols, inspiré par le mouvement Bauhaus, réinvente le paysage architectural de la ville de Rennes, lui apportant une allure verticale, graphique et futuriste. En 1970, il inaugure le premier immeuble d'habitation de grande hauteur en France, les tours jumelles des Horizons, devenues une silhouette iconique de la métropole. Avec près de 140 projets et plus de 10 000 logements, Rennes est marquée, dans chaque quartier, de son empreinte.
